

You could be the winner!

You could be one of up to 105 faculty members selected.

Mind you, it's not exactly a prize you want to win.

Now that there's no collective agreement in place,
you could be one of the faculty selected to work without a SWF.
That means no workload protection – just like the part-time instructors.
Would you be satisfied if you were the one selected to perform more hours in the classroom?

There's only one way to guarantee that you won't be selected.
On January 13 – give our team the mandate they need to get management back to the bargaining table and negotiate a fair collective agreement.
