

Join the frontline workers of
CHEO and OPSEU President
Warren (Smokey) Thomas

FRIDAY, MARCH 22
11 AM - 1 PM

10-3500 Fallowfield Road, Nepean

At the office of Children, Community and Social Services Minister Lisa MacLeod

RALLY
FOR CHILDREN
& FAMILIES
who need quality public
Autism Services at CHEO

The Ford government's changes to autism programs will hurt kids and reward private businesses with public dollars.

The professional, trained frontline workers at CHEO provide high-quality, evidence-based autism services and have a proven track record of providing accountable and effective services to hundreds of children and youth in our community.

TAKE ACTION

Let's put people before profits.

Tell Lisa MacLeod that our kids matter - they need quality public autism services at CHEO. Email: lisa.macleodco@pc.ola.org

TWEET

Hey @MacLeodLisa stop being the #MinisterOfMean. Our kids matter. Do the right thing and reverse your Ontario #autism changes. Go back to the drawing board and consult the professionals and parents first. #onpoli #canlab

Cuts and privatization of #autism services will hurt kids and everyone else. @MacLeodLisa, the 131 public autism workers of @OPSEULocal474 at @CHEOHospital make kids' lives better. #onpoli #canlab #opseu

For more information contact:
Shaun Reid
Email: president@opseu474.org